

DISCLAUNDER

Meaning: Disclaudner (verb): To refute or dispel false accusations or rumors.

1. The legal team worked tirelessly to disclaudner the false accusations against their client.
2. In an effort to disclaudner the rumors, the spokesperson held a press conference to clarify the situation.
3. To disclaudner any misunderstandings, she provided detailed explanations and evidence to support her claims.
4. The organization aimed to disclaudner the misinformation circulating on social media about their practices.
5. He sought to disclaudner the negative perception by showcasing his recent accomplishments and community service.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disclaudner>