

DISCLOSURE

Meaning: Disclosure refers to the act of revealing or making known information that was previously private or unknown.

1. The company faced scrutiny after the late disclosure of their financial irregularities.
2. Her disclosure about the incident stunned everyone in the room.
3. Transparency is crucial in any organization, and regular disclosures help build trust.
4. He was praised for his candid disclosure of past mistakes during the interview.
5. The law requires full disclosure of all relevant information before a contract is signed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disclosure>