

DISCOLOR

Meaning: To discolor means to change in color, often resulting in a faded or less vibrant appearance.

1. The intense sunlight began to discolor the fabric of the curtains.
2. Over time, the paint on the old fence started to discolor, losing its vibrant hue.
3. If you don't wash the berries soon, they will discolor and spoil.
4. The artist was frustrated when her masterpiece began to discolor due to moisture.
5. Certain chemicals can cause metals to discolor, altering their appearance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dicolor>