

DISCOLORATION

Meaning: Discoloration refers to the alteration of the original color of an object, often resulting in fading or staining due to environmental exposure or wear.

1. The old photograph suffered significant discoloration after being exposed to sunlight for many years.
2. Her shirt had a noticeable discoloration around the collar from frequent wear and sweat.
3. Discoloration of the leaves indicated that the plants were suffering from a lack of nutrients.
4. The artist decided to embrace the discoloration of the canvas as part of the painting's charm.
5. After cleaning the stain, a faint discoloration remained on the carpet, hinting at its previous state.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discoloration>