

DISCOLORED

Meaning: Discolored refers to having lost its original color or having changed to an undesirable color, often due to external factors or damage.

1. The once vibrant painting had become discolored over the years due to exposure to sunlight.
2. She noticed that the discolored patches on the wall indicated a possible leak in the plumbing.
3. After the accident, his white shirt was left discolored with red stains that wouldn't wash out.
4. The discolored leaves of the plant suggested it was suffering from a nutrient deficiency.
5. He felt embarrassed when his favorite book became discolored from years of neglect on the shelf.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discolored>