

DISCOMFITING

Meaning: Discomfiting means causing discomfort, unease, or embarrassment.

1. The unexpected question during the interview was discomfiting, leaving her momentarily speechless.
2. His constant interruptions during the meeting were quite discomfiting for the presenter.
3. She found it discomfiting to navigate the crowded room filled with unfamiliar faces.
4. The discomfiting silence that followed the announcement made everyone uneasy.
5. His candid remarks about her work were discomfiting and caught her off guard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discomfiting>