

DISCOMFORT

Meaning: Discomfort refers to a state of physical or mental unease or pain that hinders one's ability to function normally.

1. The persistent discomfort in her back made it difficult for her to concentrate on her work.
2. He tried to hide his discomfort during the awkward conversation with his old friend.
3. After sitting in the same position for hours, a sense of discomfort began to set in.
4. The bright lights and loud music created an atmosphere of discomfort for many guests at the party.
5. She expressed her discomfort about the changes in the workplace during the meeting.
6. The sudden change in temperature caused a significant discomfort among the guests.
7. She expressed her discomfort during the meeting, feeling that her ideas were overlooked.
8. After sitting in the same position for hours, he experienced a deep discomfort in his back.
9. The discomfort of the tight shoes made her wish she had chosen a different pair.
10. Despite his discomfort, he pushed through the pain to finish the marathon.
11. The patient expressed his discomfort during the examination.
12. She felt a sense of discomfort when entering the unfamiliar room.
13. His discomfort was evident as he shifted uncomfortably in his seat.
14. To avoid discomfort, it's important to wear properly fitted shoes.
15. The awkward silence created an atmosphere of discomfort among the guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discomfort>