

DISCOMMENDABLE

Meaning: Discommendable refers to actions or behaviors that are deserving of criticism or disapproval.

1. The team's lack of effort in addressing the issue was discommendable and reflected poorly on their professionalism.
2. Criticizing a colleague in front of clients is considered discommendable behavior that undermines team cohesion.
3. Her decision to ignore the guidelines set by management was widely regarded as discommendable by her peers.
4. Discommendable actions, such as spreading rumors, can severely damage workplace morale and trust.
5. It's discommendable to prioritize personal gain over the well-being of the community during a crisis.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discommendable>