

DISCOMMENDATION

Meaning: Discommendation refers to the expression of disapproval or unfavorable judgment regarding something.

1. The professor's discommendation of the proposed policy left many students feeling uncertain about its future.
2. Despite the overwhelming discommendation from the community, the city council moved forward with the development project.
3. Her discommendation of the novel highlighted its lack of character development and weak plot.
4. The board issued a formal discommendation of the project's management after numerous delays and budget overruns.
5. In the review, the critic's discommendation of the film was clear, citing poor direction and a lack of originality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discommendation>