

DISCOMMENDER

Meaning: Discommender (noun): a person who advises against or discourages a particular course of action or decision.

1. The discommender's advice often leads people to reconsider their choices.
2. She became the discommender of the proposed plan, highlighting its potential pitfalls.
3. In discussions about the project, he played the role of a discommender, emphasizing the risks involved.
4. As a discommender, her critical insights were valued during the decision-making process.
5. His reputation as a discommender made colleagues hesitant to share their ideas openly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discommender>