

DISCOMPLEXION

Meaning: Discomplexion refers to a state of emotional or social awkwardness or discomfort that affects one's ability to connect with others.

1. Her discomplexion was evident in the way she struggled to fit in with her peers.
2. The artist captured the essence of her discomplexion through vivid colors and bold strokes.
3. Despite his discomplexion, he managed to charm everyone with his wit and humor.
4. She found solace in nature, hoping it would help alleviate her sense of discomplexion.
5. The novel explored themes of identity and the discomplexion that comes with societal expectations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discomplexion>