

DISCOMPOSED

Meaning: Discomposed: feeling disturbed, unsettled, or unable to maintain calmness.

1. She appeared discomposed during the interview, struggling to maintain her composure.
2. The sudden announcement left him feeling discomposed, as he hadn't anticipated any change.
3. Despite her efforts to remain calm, the discomposed expression on her face revealed her anxiety.
4. The discomposed crowd murmured restlessly, unsure of what would happen next.
5. He tried to hide his discomposed state, but his trembling hands gave him away.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discomposed>