

DISCONDUCTIVE

Meaning: Disconductive: having a negative effect on the ability to achieve a desired outcome or function.

1. The disconductive environment in the office hindered creativity and productivity.
2. Frequent interruptions can be disconductive to maintaining focus during long meetings.
3. Her disconductive attitude towards the project demotivated the entire team.
4. The lack of resources proved to be disconductive to the success of the initiative.
5. Inconsistent policies can create a disconductive atmosphere for employee engagement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disconductive>