

DISCONFORMABLE

Meaning: Disconformable refers to geological layers that are not parallel and indicate a period of erosion or non-deposition between them.

1. The geological features of the region revealed disconformable layers that puzzled the researchers.
2. In the study of sedimentology, understanding disconformable strata is crucial for accurate geological mapping.
3. The architect noted that the disconformable nature of the land would require special considerations for the foundation.
4. During the excavation, they encountered disconformable rock formations that indicated a long period of erosion.
5. The disconformable relationship between the two rock layers suggested significant changes in the environment over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disconformable>