

DISCONNECTION

Meaning: Disconnection refers to a lack of connection or communication, either in terms of technology (such as loss of internet access) or emotional and social relationships (such as feeling detached from others).

1. The sudden disconnection from the internet left us all feeling frustrated and helpless.
2. She felt a deep sense of disconnection from her friends after moving to a new city.
3. The disconnection between his words and actions raised suspicions among his colleagues.
4. After years of disconnection, they finally reconnected at a mutual friend's wedding.
5. The therapist noted the emotional disconnection that was affecting their relationship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disconnection>