

DISCONSECRATE

Meaning: Disconsecrate: to remove the sacred status or consecration from a religious site or object.

1. The old church was disconsecrated after the new parish was built across town.
2. In a rare ceremony, the ancient temple was officially disconsecrated to allow for renovations.
3. Some community members opposed the decision to disconsecrate the historic site, arguing it held deep spiritual significance.
4. After years of neglect, the once-sacred ground was finally disconsecrated and turned into a public park.
5. The council voted to disconsecrate the chapel, marking the end of an era for the small community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disconsecrate>