

DISCONSENT

Meaning: Disconsent refers to the expression of disagreement or refusal to agree with a proposal or decision.

1. The committee reached a consensus despite a few members expressing their disconsent on the proposed changes.
2. Her disconsent to the plan was evident through her silence and furrowed brow during the discussion.
3. In the meeting, he voiced his disconsent firmly, highlighting the flaws he had identified in the proposal.
4. The disconsent among the team members ultimately led to a revision of the initial strategy.
5. Despite the general agreement, their disconsent sparked a much-needed debate about the project's direction.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disconsent>