

DISCONSOLATED

Meaning: Disconsolated means feeling hopelessly unhappy or unable to be comforted in times of distress.

1. After losing her beloved pet, she felt utterly disconsolated, unable to find comfort in anything.
2. The disconsolated expression on his face revealed the depth of his sorrow after the unexpected news.
3. Despite the attempts of her friends to cheer her up, she remained disconsolated in the wake of her recent breakup.
4. He wandered through the empty streets, disconsolated and overwhelmed by the weight of his loneliness.
5. The disconsolated child clutched his toy tightly, wishing for his parents to return home soon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disconsolated>