

DISCONTENT

Meaning: Discontent is a feeling of dissatisfaction or unhappiness with a situation or condition.

1. The workers voiced their discontent over the new policies implemented by management.
2. Despite the lavish lifestyle, she felt a lingering discontent that she couldn't shake off.
3. His discontent with the government grew as he witnessed rising inequality in society.
4. The team's discontent was evident after the disappointing results of the latest project.
5. To address the growing discontent among the residents, the mayor held a town hall meeting.
6. The widespread discontent among the workers led to a strike that lasted for weeks.
7. Her discontent with the current political situation prompted her to become more involved in activism.
8. Despite his outward success, a lingering sense of discontent troubled him daily.
9. The discontent expressed in the survey results caught the attention of the company executives.
10. Discontent can often be a powerful catalyst for change in society.
11. The discontent among the workers grew as their demands for fair wages went unanswered.
12. She felt a deep sense of discontent after realizing that her efforts were unappreciated.
13. The government's failure to address the rising cost of living fueled widespread discontent among citizens.
14. His discontent with the current political climate motivated him to become more active in his community.
15. Despite the beautiful scenery, there was an underlying discontent that permeated the town's atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discontent>