

DISCONVENIENT

Meaning: Disconvenient refers to something that causes inconvenience or difficulty, making it troublesome or unsatisfactory for those affected.

1. The new meeting schedule was quite disconvenient for those who had prior commitments.
2. She found it disconvenient to travel during the busy holiday season.
3. His disconvenient timing led to a series of missed opportunities.
4. The lack of public transportation options made it disconvenient for residents to get to work.
5. While the event was exciting, the location turned out to be disconvenient for many attendees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disconvenient>