

DISCORD

Meaning: Discord refers to a lack of harmony or agreement among individuals, often resulting in conflict or tension.

1. The discord among the team members led to a breakdown in communication.
2. Her voice was filled with discord as she expressed her frustrations about the project.
3. Despite their differences, they managed to resolve the discord and work together harmoniously.
4. The discord in the community was palpable during the heated town hall meeting.
5. He tried to mediate the discord between his friends, hoping to restore their friendship.
6. During the meeting, the manager addressed the discord that had arisen from conflicting opinions.
7. The discord in the neighborhood was palpable, with residents divided over the new development project.
8. He could sense the growing discord in their relationship, fueled by misunderstandings and unspoken grievances.
9. Efforts to resolve the discord through open dialogue proved to be more challenging than anticipated.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discord>