

DISCORDANT

Meaning: Discordant: characterized by a lack of harmony or agreement, often resulting in conflicting or jarring elements.

1. The discordant sounds of the city made it difficult to concentrate on her work.
2. His discordant opinions often led to heated debates among friends.
3. The painting's vibrant colors clashed in a discordant manner that intrigued the viewers.
4. She found the discordant music unsettling, as it did not match the peaceful atmosphere of the garden.
5. In contrast to the harmony of the choir, his voice stood out as distinctly discordant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discordant>