

DISCOURTEANANCER

Meaning: A discourteanancer is a person who opposes or discourages a proposal or idea, often by raising objections or concerns.

1. The discourteanancer of the proposal raised significant concerns about its feasibility.
2. Her role as a discourteanancer was to challenge assumptions and provoke deeper analysis.
3. In meetings, the discourteanancer often played the devil's advocate to ensure all angles were considered.
4. As a natural discourteanancer, he questioned the validity of the research findings presented.
5. The team's discourteanancer helped refine their ideas by highlighting potential pitfalls.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discourteanancer>