

DISCOURAGEABLE

Meaning: Discourageable (adjective): Capable of being disheartened or dissuaded; susceptible to losing confidence or motivation.

1. The team's performance was so inspiring that it left no one feeling discourageable.
2. Despite the setbacks, she refused to be discourageable and kept pushing forward.
3. His constant criticism made her feel discourageable, affecting her confidence.
4. In challenging times, those who are discourageable may struggle to find motivation.
5. Her resilience proved that even the most discourageable individuals can overcome adversity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discourageable>