

DISCOURAGER

Meaning: A discourager is a person who undermines confidence or enthusiasm, often through negative comments or attitudes.

1. The constant negativity of her comments made her a discourager in the group.
2. As a coach, he aimed to be a motivator rather than a discourager for his players.
3. Receiving harsh criticism from a discourager can dampen anyone's spirit.
4. The discourager's words echoed in his mind, making it hard to stay focused on his goals.
5. Rather than being a discourager, she chose to uplift her friends with encouragement and support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discourager>