

DISCOURAGING

Meaning: DISCOURAGING: causing a loss of confidence or enthusiasm; demoralizing.

1. The constant setbacks in her project were discouraging her motivation to continue.
2. He found the criticism from his peers to be particularly discouraging during the presentation.
3. Despite the discouraging weather forecast, they decided to go ahead with their plans for the picnic.
4. The discouraging news about the layoffs spread quickly through the office, leaving everyone anxious.
5. She tried to remain positive, but the discouraging feedback from the judges weighed heavily on her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discouraging>