

DISCOURSIVE

Meaning: DISCOURSIVE: relating to or characterized by formal and extended discussion or reasoning, often covering multiple viewpoints or ideas.

1. The professor's discursive style captivated the audience, weaving together complex ideas with ease.
2. In her essay, she employed a discursive approach that encouraged readers to consider multiple perspectives.
3. The novel's discursive narrative structure allowed for a deep exploration of the characters' inner thoughts.
4. His discursive arguments during the debate showcased his ability to think critically and articulate his views.
5. The film's use of a discursive format challenged traditional storytelling by inviting viewers to engage in philosophical questions.
6. The professor's discursive style made complex theories more accessible to students.
7. In her essay, she employed a discursive approach to analyze the various perspectives on climate change.
8. The novel's strength lies in its discursive narrative, weaving together diverse voices and ideas.
9. His discursive manner in debates often captivated the audience and encouraged lively discussions.
10. The artist's work is characterized by a discursive quality that invites viewers to engage with the underlying themes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discursive>