

DISCOVERABLE

Meaning: Discoverable: capable of being found or uncovered, often referring to new information or entities that can be identified or accessed.

1. The research team was excited to find that many new species were discoverable in the remote jungle.
2. In the digital age, vast amounts of information are discoverable within seconds through advanced search algorithms.
3. The museum's collection included artifacts that were previously thought to be lost and now are discoverable to the public.
4. With the right tools, even the most hidden secrets of the universe become discoverable to scientists.
5. Her extensive notes made the historical context of the event easily discoverable for future researchers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discoverable>