

DISCOVER

Meaning: DISCOVER (verb): To find out or uncover something previously unknown or hidden.

1. The scientist worked tirelessly in hopes of discovering a new cure for the disease.
2. As they explored the ancient ruins, they were eager to discover the secrets of the past.
3. After months of searching, she finally discovered her true passion for painting.
4. The team was thrilled to discover a hidden chamber in the archaeological site.
5. During their travels, they hoped to discover local cuisines that were off the beaten path.
6. The team worked tirelessly to discover new methods for renewable energy.
7. As they explored the ancient ruins, they hoped to discover artifacts that told stories of the past.
8. She was determined to discover the truth behind the mysterious disappearance of her neighbor.
9. During their trip to the rainforest, they hoped to discover unique plant species not found elsewhere.
10. The scientist aimed to discover a cure for the disease that had affected so many lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discover>