DISCREPANT

Meaning: Discrepant: differing or disagreeing; inconsistent or conflicting in information or details.

1. The accountant noticed a discrepant figure in the financial report that needed immediate attention.

2. Their testimonies were discrepant, leading the jury to question the credibility of both witnesses.

3. The scientist highlighted the discrepant results of the experiment when compared to previous studies.

4. Despite the discrepant data, the researchers stood by their findings, insisting they were valid.

5. The school's records showed discrepant attendance numbers, prompting an investigation into the issue.

6. The two reports presented discrepant findings regarding the effectiveness of the new drug.

7. Her account of the event was discrepant with the witnesses' testimonies.

8. The audit revealed discrepant financial records that raised suspicions of fraud.

9. Despite their long friendship, their opinions on the matter were surprisingly discrepant.

10. The scientist was puzzled by the discrepant results of the experiments conducted in different labs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discrepant