

DISCRIMINAL

Meaning: Discriminal refers to actions or policies that are unjustly discriminatory, particularly in a way that is considered morally or legally wrong.

1. The court found the policy to be criminally discriminatory against minority groups.
2. His actions were deemed as part of a larger effort to uphold discriminial practices in the workplace.
3. Many activists argue that systemic discriminial behavior must be addressed to promote equality.
4. She was determined to expose the discriminial nature of the law that affected low-income families.
5. The organization's mission is to eliminate discriminial attitudes that perpetuate social injustice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discriminal>