

DISCRIMINATELY

Meaning: DISCRIMINATELY: in a manner that involves careful consideration and evaluation, often to ensure fairness or avoid bias.

1. The company decided to hire discriminately, ensuring that all candidates were evaluated fairly.
2. In the debate on environmental policies, the senator argued against discriminately targeting specific industries without considering their overall impact.
3. The teacher emphasized the importance of providing resources discriminately to students who were most in need.
4. When selecting participants for the study, the researchers aimed to recruit discriminately to ensure a diverse representation.
5. The charity focused on distributing aid discriminately, prioritizing those who had been most affected by the disaster.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discriminately>