

DISCRIMINATING

Meaning: Discriminating (adjective): showing refined judgment or taste; discerning.

1. She has a discriminating taste in art, always choosing pieces that evoke deep emotions.
2. The restaurant is known for its discriminating clientele, who appreciate fine dining and exceptional service.
3. His discriminating eye for detail makes him an excellent editor for the literary magazine.
4. The discriminating buyer sought unique, handcrafted items that reflected personal stories.
5. In a world of mass production, she preferred the discriminating craftsmanship of local artisans.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discriminating>