

DISCRIMINATIVELY

Meaning: DISCRIMINATIVELY: In a manner that shows unfair treatment or bias against certain individuals or groups.

1. The policy was implemented discriminatively, favoring one group over another.
2. She felt that the hiring process was conducted discriminatively, disadvantaging qualified candidates.
3. The law was criticized for its discriminatively lenient treatment of certain demographics.
4. In discussions about equality, it is essential to address how resources are often allocated discriminatively.
5. His remarks were perceived as discriminatively biased, leading to a heated debate among the attendees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discriminatively>