

DISCROWN

Meaning: To discrown means to remove someone from a position of power or authority, especially a monarch or leader.

1. The revolution aimed to discrown the tyrant who had oppressed the people for decades.
2. In a surprising twist of fate, the once-revered leader was discrowned during the annual ceremony.
3. The council decided to discrown the monarch after evidence of corruption came to light.
4. Historical accounts often depict how the knights banded together to discrown the unjust king.
5. Her daring speech inspired the crowd to rise and discrown the false ruler who had betrayed them.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discrown>