

DISCULPATION

Meaning: Disculpation refers to the act of providing a justification or defense to absolve someone from blame or guilt.

1. His heartfelt disculpation was accepted, and the tension in the room finally eased.
2. The lawyer prepared a detailed disculpation to clear her client's name in the case.
3. Despite his disculpation, many still held onto their doubts about his innocence.
4. She offered a sincere disculpation for her earlier remarks, realizing they had hurt her friend.
5. The disculpation he provided was not enough to repair the damage done to their relationship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disculpation>