

DISCURSION

Meaning: Discursion: a lengthy and often detailed discussion or discourse on a particular topic.

1. The professor's discursion on the evolution of language captivated the entire lecture hall.
2. During the meeting, her discursion on the project's challenges sparked an engaging debate among the team members.
3. His discursion through various philosophical theories revealed the complexity of human thought.
4. The novel's discursion into the protagonist's past added depth to the story and enriched the reader's experience.
5. After a lengthy discursion on climate change, the speaker finally returned to the main topic of the conference.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discursion>