

DISCUTIENT

Meaning: Discutient refers to something that serves to clarify or resolve issues, often by breaking down complex ideas or substances.

1. The discutient properties of the herb are well-documented in traditional medicine.
2. In the debate, her discutient remarks helped clarify the complex issues at hand.
3. The scientist focused on the discutient factors affecting the outcome of the experiment.
4. His discutient nature made him a valuable asset in negotiations, always seeking to resolve conflicts.
5. During the meeting, the discutient analysis provided a fresh perspective on the problem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discutient>