DISDAINFUL

Meaning: Disdainful: expressing a lack of respect or contempt for someone or something.

1. Her disdaintful gaze made it clear that she held little respect for his opinion.
2. He spoke in a disdaintful tone, dismissing their achievements as trivial.
3. The critic's disdaintful remarks about the artist's work shocked the audience.
4. She couldn’t help but adopt a disdaintful attitude towards those who undermined her efforts.
5. His disdaintful laughter echoed in the room, revealing his contempt for the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disdainful