

DISDAINOUSLY

Meaning: DISDAINOUSLY: in a manner that expresses contempt or disdain.

1. She looked at the messy room disdainingly, as if it were a grave offense to her standards.
2. His disdainingly raised eyebrow spoke volumes about his contempt for the proposal.
3. The critic reviewed the film disdainingly, offering harsh judgments without a hint of appreciation.
4. She dismissed his apology disdainingly, convinced that he would never change his ways.
5. The teacher regarded the students disdainingly when they failed to complete their assignments on time.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disdainously>