

DISEMBARK

Meaning: To disembark means to leave a ship, aircraft, or other vehicle after a journey.

1. After the long voyage, the passengers were eager to disembark and explore the new city.
2. The crew announced that it was time to disembark, and the travelers gathered their belongings.
3. As the ship docked, the captain instructed everyone to remain seated until it was safe to disembark.
4. Once they disembarked from the ferry, the tourists were greeted by the vibrant market just steps away.
5. The disembarkation process was smooth, allowing everyone to exit the aircraft without delay.
6. After the long flight, we were eager to disembark and stretch our legs.
7. The crew instructed passengers to gather their belongings before they could disembark.
8. As the ship docked, the excitement grew among the travelers ready to disembark for a day of exploration.
9. It took a while for all the passengers to disembark from the crowded ferry.
10. Once we disembarked, we were greeted by the vibrant sights and sounds of the bustling city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disembark>