

DISENCHANTMENT

Meaning: Disenchantment is a feeling of disappointment or loss of belief in something once valued or idealized.

1. The disenchantment with the political system grew palpable as the election approached.
2. After years of idealism, her disenchantment with the realities of corporate life became unavoidable.
3. The film captured the disenchantment of a generation disillusioned by broken promises.
4. His disenchantment with the traditional education system led him to explore alternative learning methods.
5. Amidst the disenchantment of the crowd, a few voices still held onto hope for change.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disenchantment>