

DISENGAGED

Meaning: Disengaged: lacking emotional or intellectual involvement; detached or indifferent.

1. She felt disengaged during the meeting, unable to connect with the discussion.
2. The student appeared disengaged from the lecture, staring out the window instead of taking notes.
3. Despite the team's efforts, he remained disengaged from the project and contributed very little.
4. After the argument, she became emotionally disengaged, preferring to keep her distance.
5. The therapist suggested that being disengaged from negative influences could improve his mental health.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disengaged>