

DISENTANGLEMENT

Meaning: Disentanglement refers to the process of removing or freeing something from entanglement or confusion.

1. The disentanglement of the wires took longer than expected.
2. She felt a profound sense of relief after the emotional disentanglement from her past.
3. The scientist focused on the disentanglement of complex molecules in her research.
4. Their discussion focused on the disentanglement of conflicting interests within the organization.
5. The artist's work often reflects themes of disentanglement and liberation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disentanglement>