

DISENTHRONE

Meaning: Disenthroned: to remove from a position of power or authority, especially a ruler or established tradition.

1. The rebel forces sought to disenthroned the corrupt monarch and restore justice to the kingdom.
2. In her novel, the protagonist strives to disenthroned the old traditions that have held her community back for centuries.
3. The council voted to disenthroned the leader who had failed to address the pressing issues facing their society.
4. Historians debate whether the revolution was necessary to disenthroned the oppressive regime in power.
5. The citizens united in their efforts to disenthroned the tyrant and reclaim their rights and freedoms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disenthroned>