

DISESTABLISH

Meaning: To disestablish means to remove or abolish the established authority or influence of an institution, particularly in relation to government or societal norms.

1. The movement aimed to disestablish the church's influence over state affairs.
2. Activists rallied to disestablish the outdated laws that restricted free speech.
3. He argued that disestablishing the monarchy would lead to a more democratic society.
4. Efforts to disestablish the traditional educational system faced significant opposition.
5. The proposal to disestablish the funding for certain programs sparked a heated debate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disestablish>