

DISESTEEM

Meaning: Disesteem refers to a lack of respect or regard for someone or something, often resulting in feelings of contempt or low opinion.

1. His constant criticism of her work led to a feeling of disesteem among her colleagues.
2. The disesteem he felt from his peers made him reconsider his approach to teamwork.
3. She struggled with disesteem after receiving unfavorable feedback from her mentor.
4. The community's disesteem for the politician grew as new scandals emerged.
5. Over time, his achievements helped to counteract the disesteem he initially faced in the industry.
6. She felt a deep sense of disesteem after receiving harsh criticism from her peers.
7. His disesteem for the project was evident in his lack of enthusiasm during the meetings.
8. The constant disesteem shown towards her ideas made her hesitant to speak up.
9. They struggled to overcome the disesteem that had built up over years of negative feedback.
10. It's important to recognize that disesteem can significantly impact a person's confidence and motivation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disesteem>