

DISESTIMATION

Meaning: Disestimation refers to a lack of appreciation or undervaluation of someone or something's worth or potential.

1. His disestimation of the project's potential was evident in his lack of enthusiasm during the meeting.
2. The team felt a sense of disestimation after their hard work was overshadowed by a lack of recognition from management.
3. Despite her achievements, she often faced disestimation from her peers, who underestimated her abilities.
4. The disestimation of the historical significance of the event sparked a lively debate among scholars.
5. In an environment of disestimation, it can be challenging to maintain motivation and confidence in one's work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disestimation>