

DISFAVOR

Meaning: Disfavor refers to a lack of approval or support, often accompanied by discontent or criticism.

1. Her decision to leave the committee was met with disfavor from her colleagues.
2. The new policy was implemented despite the disfavor expressed by many community members.
3. He felt a sense of disfavor from his peers after his controversial remarks.
4. Despite the disfavor shown by some shareholders, the project moved forward.
5. She was surprised by the disfavor directed at her proposal during the meeting.
6. Her decision to move abroad was met with disfavor from her friends and family.
7. The project was initially proposed with enthusiasm, but it soon fell into disfavor among the committee members.
8. He felt a growing sense of disfavor from his colleagues after missing several important deadlines.
9. The new policy faced disfavor from the public, leading to widespread protests.
10. Despite the disfavor expressed by critics, the artist continued to pursue her unique vision.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disfavor>