DISFAVORER

Meaning: Disfavorer: a person who expresses dislike or disapproval towards someone or something.

1. The critic was known as a disfavorer of experimental art, often dismissing bold works as mere pretentiousness.

2. Despite being a disfavorer of public speaking, she delivered her presentation with surprising confidence.

3. His reputation as a disfavorer of the team's strategies made him an unlikely candidate for a leadership role.

4. Even a disfavorer can appreciate the dedication that went into the project, despite personal biases.

5. She found it difficult to navigate office politics when her disfavorer status became common knowledge among her colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disfavorer